REMARKS

Upon careful and complete consideration of the Office Action dated October 1, 2002, applicant has amended the specification and claims which, when considered in conjunction with the comments herein below, are deemed to place the present application into condition for allowance. Favorable reconsideration of this application, as amended, is respectfully solicited.

The Office Action objected to the subject specification for lacking subheadings of the various sections. Applicant has accordingly amended the specification to include the applicable headings. It is also noted that the first paragraph of
